3. Radio and Radar:

There were no changes in the Token radar set north of the airfield, in the Kniferest set located approximately 250 meters east of the Token, in the short-wave set inside the camp, in the static radio station on the firing range, in the radio station east of the airfield, or in the Adcock-type D/F station at the Meuschau firing range.

4. Miscellaneous:

On the nights of 7, 8 and 9 February, motorized troops, including light armored units, were entrained at the Merseburg freight station, after having come from outside Merseburg. Entrances to the station were blocked by guards.
